Dalton Hallal put in a man of the match performance for Blacon Thistle as they came up against a resilient Cestrian Alex in the Quarter Finals of the CWFL Roodee Web Designs Tom Gerraghty Memorial Trophy. It was down to Hallal that the score was 0-0 at half time and with a Joe Henry hat trick late in the second half the Blacon side now go into Wednesday's semi final to face Birkenhead Town. Birkenhead had an easier time of it as they eased past Christleton Celtic 5-0 thanks to goals from Ryan Atherton 3, Andrew Bolton and Mike Parnell. Lache bounced back from their weekend defeat to record an 11-0 win over Ellesmere Port Town Reserves. Leon Whitley lead the scoring with 6 followed by Brooke Goodwin 2, Dale Gilmartin 2 and Sam Spridgeon. Lache will face Newton who needed extra time to see off Samba. It was a tense end to end game that finished 0-0 at the end of 90 minutes until Lewis Davenport popped up to score the Newton winner with only seconds left on the clock.

The Semi Final draw is as follows:

Wednesday 20th April 16
