Results and Scorers Saturday 14th November 2015

Birkenhead Town remain top of the CWFL Queensferry Sports Premier Division after a 3-0 victory over Ellesmere Port Town Reserves thanks to goals from Gino King 2 and Lee Gibson. Lodge Bar remain just two points behind. They entertained Uberlube and went goal crazy, recording an 11-2 win. Illya Haycock was their leading marksman with 4 followed by Craig Chesworth, Joe Cossins, Aled Gardener, Liam Mackin, Tom Smith, George Pulford and Lee Stephens. Ellesmere Port FC also scored highly. They beat Christleton Celtic 9-2 with strikes courtesy of Pete Barnett 3, Nicky Monaghan 2, Ian Forster 2, Matty Earlam and Daniel Woodcock. Andy Grimes, Mark Lawler and Tim Wilson hit the net for Higher Bebington Kelma in their 6-3 defeat at the hands of Lache. Warren Kelly 2, Sam Spridgeon 2, Sam Buckley and Ryan Cunliffe were the Lache scorers.

In the CWFL Olympic Trophies Division One Newton Athletic made the most of Blacon Thistles free week by drawing level on points at the top of the table after a 4-3 win over Cestrian Alex. A brace a piece for Dan Eaton and Lewis Davenport for Newton was enough to cancel out Cestrian scorers Adi Gough, Joe Walters and Rob Dixon. It was Neston Town who came out on top in the Neston Derby. They beat Nomads 2-0 thanks to goals from Kieran Gilbody and Martin Coan. Allesandro Malletta 2, Mike Robinson 2 and Ethan Jones were on target for Chester Nomads III in a 5-1 win over Lodge Bar whilst elsewhere Dean Rattcliffe 3, Mark Hughes 2, Paul Gunderson, Richard Callis and Sean Bretland fired Ashton to a 8-2 home win over Elton Athletic.

New Ferry Rangers continue their impressive form in the CWFL Link Up Division Two. They travelled to Crossway where Adam Bagley 2, Scott Christian and Chris Carress fired them to a 4-1 win. Phil Goss hit the consolation for Crossway. Goals by Mike Bryant, Liam Gough and Alex Hutchinson were not enough to stop Hoole Rangers losing 7-4 at the hands of Eastham Athletic. Dave Jacks recorded his tenth goal of the season and the winner for Orange Athletic in their 2-1 win over Ellesmere Port Town III. Ian Thomas scored their first.

It was cup weekend for the CWFL Vets teams. The Doug Johnson Veterans Shield is played on group basis with the teams split into two groups of five. In Group A Gary Southerton scored for Ashton Vets in a 2-1 defeat at the hands of Nags Head Bunbury Vets. Dee Rangers Vets and Tarvin Vets played out a 2-2 draw. Ranger's scorers were Dan O'Donnell and Vinnie Burden. In Group B the ever green Tony Buckley hit a brace for Blacon Youth Vets in their 4-0 win over Crossway Vets, Lee McElmeel and Scott Broadbent the other scorers. In the groups other game a man of the match performance from Matthew Nield of Frodsham Park Vets saw him hit a hat trick in a 3-1 win over Tattenhall Vets.

The days big cup game between Franklyn's and Woodchurch Athletic was postponed at the last minute due to the weather.
