CWFL Round Up Saturday 16th January 2016

Viva la Deva!!! That is the cry coming from the CWFL Premier Division side Deva Athletic after seeing off West Cheshire League One side, Blacon Youth in emphatic style. Deva triumphed 8-1 over Blacon in their Chester & District Senior Cup round 2 game. Darragh O'Callaghan and Declan Jarrett both recorded hat tricks for the Deva with Josh Jones and Lee Constantine netting one a piece. Deva will now go into the hat for round three and will be full of confidence after this result.

Ellesmere Port FC are the new leaders of the CWFL Queensferry Sports Premier Division after a derby day victory over neighbours Ellesmere Port Town Reserves. Nicky Monaghan and Ryan Abraham hit three a piece with single for Peter Barnett and James Fletcher in a resounding 8-1 victory. Aaron Cephis hit the consolation for the Town.

Whitby Athletic Reserves enjoyed their first win of the season in the CWFL Olympic Trophies Division One with a 5-1 win over Elton Athletic. James Selkirk and a brace each for Steve Rothwell and Jamie Ranford getting them all three points.

In the CWFL Link Up Division Two Woodchurch Athletic went goal crazy at the expense of Ellesmere Port Town III. James Harris 3, Lawrence Harris 3 and Tommy Harris were all on the scoresheet along with Marc Roberts and Lee Dermody to secure a 10-1 win.

All other games fell foul of the weather once again.
