Results & Scorers Saturday 22nd August 2015

Ellesmere Port FC are sitting at the top of the CWFL Queensferry Sports Premier Division after a derby day victory over local rivals Whitby Athletic. The prolific Nicky Monaghan and Matty Earlam produced the goods to cancel out a Luke Edwards penalty. Daniel Wynne hit a brace for Christleton Celtic in their 2-1 win over Higher Bebington Kelma. Andy Jenkins hit the consolation for Kelma. Jim Reece and Tommy Fellows ensured that Lodge Bar enjoyed the drive home after firing a goal a piece in their 2-1 away win to Birkenhead Town. Liam Casey hit the net for Birkenhead.

In the CWFL Olympic Trophies Division One, Warren Ephraim scored for Cestrian Alex in their fixture at home to Blacon Thistle. However, it was a case of too little too late as the Thistle were on fire as they continue their impressive start to the campaign. Matty Hallal, James Henry, Joe Henry, Chris Williams, Ellis Moore 2, Warren Roberts 3 and second half sub Lee King McGee 5 were all on target in this 14-1 win. Thistle now move on to Monday night where they will meet Newton Athletic who have also had a great start to the season. Newton travelled to Lodge Bar II where they won 7-1 thanks to goals from Dan Christian 5, Lewis Davenport and Mark Moorefield. Josh Fennell hit the consolation for Lodge Bar. Ash Ancliff was on target for Elton Athletic as they picked up their second point of the season after edging a 1-1 draw with Neston Town. Dave Swain set Franklyn's up for a perfect start when he scored the first of five goals after just twenty seconds from the start of the game. Mike Watson 2, Conner Bowman and Tom Gunnery added to the tally to give Franklyn's a 9-1 away win at Gardeners Arms who had Joe Williamson reply. Neston Nomads keep their 100% record also. They beat Ashton 3-2 thanks to strikes from Luke Hall, Ryan Matthews and Jimmy Hilditch. In the divisions other game Sonny Allinson, James Atherton and Phil Hudson with a 30 yarder were all on the mark for Woodchurch Athletic in their 3-0 win over Chester Nomads III.

The early leaders of the CWFL Link Up Division Two are New Ferry Rangers. They have settled quickly into the CWFL recording two wins and a draw to date. Today they entertained Eastham Athletic, winning 7-1 thanks to goals from Adam Bagley 2, Ritchie Brown 2, Danny Hamil 2 and Luke Cassidy. Clubbies move into second after getting their second win of the season. They were hosts to new club Elton Rigger and came out 5-0 winners with goals courtesy of Adam Ellis, Jim Lehman (pen) and a James Simpson hat trick. Dean Kane gave Ellesmere Port Spartans a first half lead over MBNA before second half goals Ryan Chatburn, Tom Povey, Liam Hett and Phil Taylor gave the bankers a 4-1 away win. Luke Chard hit a brace for Hoole Youth in their 6-2 away loss at the hands of Samba. Andy Milne 2, Simon Whelan, Ian Johnson, Andy Barlow and Nial Evans with the winners for Samba. Dave Jacks 2 and Ian Thomas were once again on the scoresheet for Orange Athletic who went down 4-3 at home to Hoole Rangers Reserves.
