Chester & Wirral Football League

Lodge Bar are sitting pretty at the top of the CWFL Queensferry Sports Premier Division after another fine performance away to Higher Bebington Kelma. Chris McCaffrey and a 94th minute goal from Tony Wypenny gave Lodge the points after cancelling out an Andy Grimes first half goal. Declan Jarrett hit a hat trick for Deva Athletic in their 7-0 win over Ellesmere Port Town. Josh Jones weighed in with a brace with a goal a piece for Liam Bradford and Danny Davies to complete the scoring. Nicky Monaghan and Danny Paige hit home for Ellesmere Port FC in their 6-2 defeat at the hands of Birkenhead Town. Whitby Athletic and Shaftesbury Youth shared the points after their game ended in a 3-3 draw. John McGraa 2 and Lewis Trodden for Shafts. Uberlube recorded their first win of the season after beating Christleton Celtic 3-1 thanks to Jordan Jones and a Matt Elson brace.

Samba are the new leaders of the CWFL Link Up Division Two after recording their third straight victory of the season in a 7-1 away win at neighbours Ellesmere Port Spartans. Nathan Moffatt hit the Spartans consolation. James Simpson scored twice for Clubbies in their 2-1 win over Crossway. Phil Taylor 2, Andre Clarke, Tom Povey, Chris Grierson and Jamie Copley were all on target for the resurgent MBNA as they cruised past Eastham Athletic 6-0. Ellesmere Port Town III have now had back to back wins after securing a 4-3 home win over Hoole Rangers Res thanks to Joe Byrnes 2, Liam Brennan and an own goal. Hoole Youth move off bottom place after recording their first win of the campaign. They travelled to Orange Athletic and picked up a 3-2 win with goals from Luke Chard, Jack Rowlands and Ben Kresnyak. Jack Butcher and Tom Wilkinson were the Orange Marksmen.

The action now moves on to Saturday where a full programme awaits.
