Blacon Youth Reserves got their campaign off to a winning start beating Ellesmere Port FC by the odd goal in 7. Joe Thompson lead the scoring with a brace with the other goals coming courtesy of Adam Langley and Lewis Coppack. Joe Walley and Tom Perrin 2 relied for the Port.

Niall Evans scored a penalty for Rossmore Rangers but it was not enough as they went down 2-1 to Chester Nomads III who had Jared Bieber and Jordan Jones to thank for the goals. Hoole Rangers come from 4 goals down to snatch a point in their game with FC Duddon Utd. The game ended 4-4 with Tom Walsh 3 and Dave Hughes the Hoole scorers and Will Furredge, Alex Ball and 2 own goals adding to the Duddon tally. James Holroyd scored 2 for Princes Villa in their 2-2 draw with Crossway, Dean Ratcliffe and Paul Seddon their scorers.
